Why do you want wool in your bed? Because the natural structure of wool serves as mini "springs" to give you added support while it also regulates temperature and wicks away moisture. The new Paramount collection by @ParamountSleep features 100% natural New Zealand wool to keep you cool, dry and comfortable all night long. #SleepIsParamount #ParamountSleep	Why do you want wool in your bed? The new Paramount collection by @ParamountSleep features copper-infused Talalay latex. Natural latex is a plant material that is processed using the Talalay method, creating a far superior quality and feel than other processes. Its unique buoyancy provides incredible pressure relief while the infused copper gives it antimicrobial and antibacterial properties. #SleepIsParamount #ParamountSleep	The new Paramount collection by @Paramount_Sleep features copper-infused Talalay latex.
